25X1 25X1 On 16 June, the Adolf Hitler Kaserne (2287), Potedam, was occupied by about 1,000 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank, artillary, signal and motor transport insignia. Three trucks towing 57-mm AT guns were seen in the barracks yard. No training other than physical training was observed. 7. On 17 June, the Adolf Hitler Kaserne was occupied as previously by about 1,500 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, mostly with tank insignia and, a few officers, with artillery insignia. Between 20 and 25 June, the previously observed personnel carriers and trucks were no longer seen. Between 20 May and 5 June, about 30 soldiers were repeatedly seen firing with live ammunition at the Bornstedt firing ranges. Trucks 25X1 25X1 engaged in driving practices. Motor vehicles 25X1 were seen en route to and from the installation. On 26 May, the Adolf Hitler Kaserne was occupied by a bout 800 to 1,000 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaule ts with tank and moter transport insignia. On 25 May, about 60 soldiers engaged in physical training and about 40 soldiers received basic training in the barracks yard. About 60 soldiers with carbines and practice targets marched toward Katharinenhols (woods). On 26 May, a T-34/85 tanks was seen in the barracks area. Three 25X1 T-34/85 tanks practiced driving at Bornstedter Feld. Trucks were parked in front of the installation. 25X1 On 2 Jame, the Adolf Hitler Kaserns was occupied. Sentries observed were red-bordered black epaulets with tank and artillery insignia. Two T-34 tanks were observed in the yard. An undetermined number of soldiers received instruction on a 76.2-mm field gun at the athletic field. On 2 June. 6 trucks towing 76,2-mm field guns were seen in the barracks yard, ready for departure. On 17 June, the Kavallerieschule Krampnitz (2161) was occupied by 6,000 to 7,000 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epsule ts with tank, artillery, signal and motor transport insignia. On 12 June, about 80 soldiers received basic training and about 20 soldiers received instruction on 2 guns, presumably 122-mm field howitzers in the western portion of the barracks area. On 14 June, 10 trucks carrying 9 pontoons, 1 motorboat, beams and logs left the quartering area for the nor thern shore of Krampnitz Lake, where the trucks were unloaded. 25X1 25X1 At about 1900, troops started at the construction of a pontoon bridge. On 16 June, at least 800 soldiers fired with live ammunition in the Bullenwinkel area. 25X1 25X1 11. On 12 June, the Kavallerieschule Krampnitz was occupied by 10,000 to 12,000 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets with tank, artillery, motor transport and signal insignia. Training in the barracks yard and the training area was very intensive. There were no indications of a transfer of the units. Between 1 and 10 June, about 100 to 200 soldiers repeatedly received field training in the training area north of the installation. On 3 June, driving school trucks 25X1 left the installation. At about 1100, a unit of about battalion strength was seen in a simulated attack against a hill about 2,500 meters east of the former village of Ferbits. Twelve T-34/85 tanks, about 300 infantry men and several guns participated in the exercise. About 80 to 100 soldiers were observed in positions on the hill. On 4.
